PREFACE.

This volume, the fourth of our series of extant Middlesex registers, contains the Marriage registers—transcribed by Mr. Thomas Gurney—of eight Parishes, a total so far of twenty-two Registers. As the present county of Middlesex numbers only about fifty Parishes it will be seen that we have now printed the marriage records of nearly half the county and that the completion of the whole may be looked for within a reasonable limit of time. The Parishes dealt with here form an interesting complement to those which appeared last year in the third volume of this series.

1379181

Thanks are due to the various clergy whose names appear under the respective Parishes for their valued co-operation.

Preceding volumes have contained the following :—

VOLUME I.	VOLUME II,	VOLUME III.
Acton	Hillingdon	Hampton
Heston	Hayes	Twickenham
Hanwell	Northolt	Teddington
Harlington	Ickenham
Greenford	Cowley
	West Drayton

The usual abbreviations have been adopted :—

w. = widower or widow.	p. = of the parish of.
s. = spinster or single woman.	co. = in the county of.
b. = bachelor or single man.	dioc. = in the diocese of.
d. = daughter of.	lic. = marriage licence.
publ. = publication of intended marriage.

The reader will, of course, remember that these printed abstracts of Marriages are not “evidence” in the technical sense. Certified extracts must still be obtained when evidence of a marriage is required for proving a pedigree in a court of law, or when registering it at Heralds' College. For such certificates application must be made to the clergy in charge of the original Registers.

The practice is now becoming more general of printing Registers as far as 1837, when the Registrar-General's office was established. By the Act passed 28th July, 1812, it became obligatory to record baptisms and burials in printed Registers, and, as a rule, the opportunity was taken of commencing new Register books for marriages, although their form is similar to those which had been in force since 1754, under Lord Hardwicke's Marriage Act, excepting that each form is numbered. In a serial work of this kind the advantage of stopping at 1812 is obvious, allowing as it does a larger number of parishes to be dealt with in each volume, but as, since this series was started, 1812 has receded still more into the past, it has been decided that in future volumes the Registers shall be brought down, whenever possible, to the year 1837, when the present uniform system of registration was instituted.

It only remains to say that the Editors will be glad to hear from any of the clergy and others who are interested in the work. Further help in transcription would be appreciated.

Owing to a printer's error some of the footings in this volume bear the indicating number III instead of IV but it is of no consequence.

Volume V is in the press and in addition to Uxbridge and Harefield it will contain the Registers of some parishes in North Middlesex.

Middlesex Parish Registers.

Marriages at New Brentford,

1618 to 1812.

NOTE.—Brentford, the county town of Middlesex and, according to some ancient records, the capital of England, has existed from time immemorial. It is therefore strange to learn that its component parts (New Brentford and Old Brentford) were formed out of the parishes of Hanwell and Ealing respectively, and that Old Brentford chapel was not consecrated till 1828. Notwithstanding this the historic interest of Brentford is peculiar to the town itself. New Brentford, formerly known as West Brentford, is probably the oldest part of the town and in the parish church, which is dedicated to St. Lawrence, is a chart which relates that the Manor of Hanwell was given by King Edgar in 959 to Westminster Abbey.

Vol. I. Marriages 1618 to 1666; Burials 1570 to 1653; only Baptisms 1619 to 1620, and particulars of a few charities. Measures 16 in. by 6 in.; writing fairly clear and legible. Four leaves of the period 1647 to 1653 and two of the period 1658 to 1660 are paper and the remaining twenty-five leaves are parchment as also are the covers which have become detached and show signs of hard wear. The volume is now kept in a neat case made of red Pegamoid. On the first cover is the following note:—"This old register was found among the effects of Thos. Wilson, late parish clerk, by Mr. Wm. Smeeton and by him given to the chapel-wardens, J. E. Bridges and Hy. Eyles, in 1803."

Vol. II. Marriages and Publications of intended Marriages 1653 to 1658 and 1666 to 1721; Births and Baptisms 1653 to 1658 and 1665 to 1721; Burials 1653 to 1721; a schedule of goods belonging to the chapel in 1669; a catalogue of 143 bonds, indentures etc. Parchment with stiffened vellum binding; fairly good condition; measures 9½ in. by 7 in.

Vol. III. Marriages 1722 to 1754; Baptisms and Burials 1721 to 1805. Parchment with stiffened vellum binding; fastened with two clasps; fairly good condition but slightly unstitched; measures 11½ in. by 8½ in.

Vol. IV. Banns and Marriages combined 1754 to 1810. Printed parchment forms bound in sheep-skin; measures 8 in. by 10 in. (a very uncommon size for this period.)

Vol. V. Marriages 1810 to 1812. The usual printed parchment forms bound in sheep-skin; measures 15 in. by 10 in.

These extracts have been made by Mr. Thomas Gurney, of North Kensington, and are now printed under his supervision by leave of the Rev. G. W. Grundy, vicar of New Brentford.

Marriages at Hounslow,

1708 to 1812.

NOTE.—This is the register of the ecclesiastical parish of Holy Trinity.

For marriages solemnized here before 1708 see Heston and other parishes.

For civil purposes Hounslow still forms part of Heston and Isleworth.

Vol. I. Numerous baptisms 1708 to 1742; Marriages, 1708 to 1742; Burials, 1721 to 1738 (only six entries); Briefs and charity school accounts. Paper leaves with stiffened vellum binding. Measures 8 by 6½ in.

Vol. II. Numerous Baptisms 1742 to 1757 and 1772 to 1836 (no entries from 1812 to 1829 when the new church was opened); Burials 1738 to 1816 (only seven entries); Marriages 1742 to 1753. Paper leaves with stiffened vellum binding. Measures 9½ by 7½ in.

Vol. III. see extracts.

These extracts have been made by Mr. Thos. Gurney, and are now printed under his supervision by leave of Rev. C. G. Gull, vicar of Holy Trinity, Hounslow.

[Most of the Burials are of members of the family of Rich. Bulstrode, esq., proprietor of Hounslow Chapel].

Marriages at Stanwell,

1632 to 1812.

NOTE.—Poyle, West Bedfont and a portion of Colnbrook form part of this parish. This register is an interesting one. Extracts from the Colnbrook register will appear in the Buckinghamshire series. It is not the purpose of this work to notice baptismal or burial entries, but one or two are shown occasionally for the sake of reference.

Vol. I. The entries are somewhat difficult to classify. They are mixed and are not in chronological order, and they are interrupted by entries in the next two volumes. This volume contains Baptisms, 1632 to 1658 and 1706 to 1728; Marriages and Publications, 1632 to 1658 and 1708 to 1727; Burials, 1632 to 1658 and 1706 to 1728; a note of children of this parish christened at "Colebrooke chappell," 1621 to 1637; a list of vicars [not complete] from 1632 to 1893 and a large number of briefs, Parchment in fairly good preservation but slightly nibbled. Measures $14\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. Bound in stiffened vellum.

Vol. II. Here again the entries are mixed, the marriages commencing in the middle of the book and continuing from the beginning and afterwards from the end of the register. It contains Baptisms, Marriages and Burials 1656 to 1695. Parchment, bound in stiffened vellum and fastened with two clasps. Measures 12 in. by $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. In fairly good condition.

Vol. III. Marriages, 1695 to 1754; Baptisms, 1695 to 1787; Burials, 1695 to 1788. Parchment, bound in sheepskin. Measures 13 in. by 10 in. It has probably been repaired and the covers seem to be modern.

Vol. IV. The usual book of printed paper forms, banns over marriages, 1755 to 1812. It was permissible to suspend registering the banns until the parties attended to solemnize the marriage. An unusually large number of the entries are of persons who signed with an educated hand.

These extracts have been made by Mr. Thomas Gurney, and are now printed under his supervision by leave of Rev. J. G. Munday, vicar of Stanwell.

Marriages at Sunbury,

1566 to 1812.

NOTE.—Upper Halliford and Charlton (or Chertington) are hamlets in this parish which altogether embraces a large area.

Vol. I. Baptisms and Burials, 1565 to 1783; Marriages, 1566 to 1754.

About 300 paper leaves originally, and only 260 now, but the entries seem to be intact. Leather binding rather suggestive of the middle of the eighteenth century when possibly some leaves were added. Very good condition considering the long period dealt with and the vast quantity of information contained, rather too much in fact for one volume, although for reference purposes that has its advantages. Measures 12 in. by 8 in. To some extent it is probably a transcript although on paper. Contains a list of benefactions, briefs, vicars, and notes on the parish and churchyard rails, also a reference to the French colony here, their preacher being Rev. Chas. Le Blanc, who died in 1735. Quite a number of the aristocracy lived and died here, and this is a very interesting register.

Vol. II. Printed parchment forms for Banns and Marriages combined, 1754 to 1799, Bound in sheep skin. The proportion of signatures by educated hands is above the average. Robert Coney, John Vesey and Wm. Truss were parish clerks.

Vol. III. Printed paper forms for Marriages, 1800 to 1812.

These extracts have been made by Mr. Thomas Gurney, and are now printed under his supervision by leave of Rev. William Russell, vicar of Sunbury.

Marriages at Ashford,

1696 to 1812.

NOTE.—This parish was anciently known as Exeforde or Echeleforde.

The vicar of Staines was formerly ipso facto vicar of Laleham and Ashford; this probably accounts for the first Ashford register being divided into portions dealing separately with the three parishes, and he may have resided at the last-named. The entries are not numerous and they are therefore shown in these extracts as they appear in the Ashford register.

Vol. I. Staines Births 1696 to 1710; Marriages 1696 to 1710; Burials 1696 to 1710 (including dissenters). Laleham Births 1696 to 1704; Marriages 1696 to 1708; Burials 1696 to 1709. Ashford Births 1699 to 1707; Burials 1699 to 1709; Marriages 1699 to 1708. Paper leaves in rather dilapidated condition. Measures 15 in. by 5 in. The cover consists of a parchment deed, being a lease of land and buildings in the parish of Appleton, in which the names of Katherine Sellwood and Wm. Perry appear.

Vol. II. is said to have been burnt during the eighteenth century.

Vol. III. is a book of printed paper forms bound in parchment boards. Banns and Marriages combined, 1754 to 1812. Wm. Oliver, Wm. Blades, Thos. Howman and John Thatcher were probably parish clerks.

These extracts have been made by Mr. Thomas Gurney, and are now printed under his supervision by leave of Rev. Dr. Thornton, vicar of Ashford.

Marriages at Feltham,

1634 to 1812.

Vol. I. consists of fourteen leaves of parchment, with vellum covers. Baptisms, 1634 to 1675; Marriages, 1634 to 1689; Burials, 1634 to 1695, and a note states that from 1659 to 1695 the register of burials is lost. In good condition. Measures $15\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $5\frac{1}{2}$ in. There is no difference between the Commonwealth entries and others, this being somewhat unusual.

Vol. II. consists of twenty-five leaves of paper, three of which being blank are pasted to the parchment covers. Baptisms, 1648 to 1725; Marriages, 1695 to 1709, and four in the year 1724 which appear also in the next register; Burials, 1695 to 1726. In fairly good condition. Measures 15 in. by 6 in.

Vol. III. consists of paper leaves with stiffened parchment covers. Baptisms, 1711 to 1806; Marriages, 1711 to 1752; Burials, 1724 to 1806; Briefs and a list of inductions. In good condition. Measures 14 in. by $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. From 1753 till 1771 the baptisms and burials were not registered, but several birthdays are recorded for that period.

Vol. IV. consists of printed paper forms for Banns and Marriages combined, 1754 to 1812; stiffened vellum covers, 15 in. by $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. In some cases the forms are quite blank but for the signatures of witnesses as shown. Contains two circular letters from T. H. Lister, the Registrar-General of 1837, with regard to the new regulations for quarterly returns to be made. These extracts have been made by Mr. Thomas Gurney, and are now printed under his supervision, by leave of Rev. J. F. Jemmett, vicar of Feltham.

Marriages at Hanworth,

1732 to 1837.

NOTE.—The earlier registers are missing and may have been destroyed between 1807 and 1813 when the church was being rebuilt. This is very regrettable as they were probably of considerable interest. Rev. Danl. Lysons, writing in 1800, refers to a register commencing in 1582, and quotes some interesting entries from it and from subsequent volumes, including the families of Germaine, Killigrew, Berkeley, Cottington, Wolseley, Fiennes, Chamber and Beauchlerk.

Vol. I. consists of paper leaves bound in parchment boards. Contains Baptisms and Burials, 1731 to 1812; Marriages, 1732 to 1752; and a list of rectors from 1609 to 1812. In fairly good condition, measures 15½ in. by 6¼ in.

Vol. II consists of printed paper forms for Banns and Marriages combined, 1755 to 1807; bound in stiffened vellum. Contains a license from the Stamp Office, dated 4 Oct., 1783. Measures 15 in. by 9½ in.

Vol. III. consists of printed paper forms for Marriages only, 1813 to 1837; bound in stiffened parchment. This volume is included in these extracts because the earlier records are so few in number. It cannot of course speak for the missing registers as it does for itself.

These extracts have been made by Mr. Thos. Gurney, and are now printed under his supervision, by leave of Rev. R. Fairfax Scott, Rector of Hanworth.

Marriages at Pinner,

1654 to 1837.

NOTE.—The church was broken into about 1824 and, according to the Parish Register Abstract of 1832, some registers were destroyed; that, however, is doubtful, as the Rev. Daniel Lysons, writing in 1800, quotes nothing earlier than the first volume mentioned in these extracts. Vol. I. Births and Baptisms, 1654 to 1743; Marriages, 1654 to 1742; Burials, 1654 to 1678. Parchment, re-bound in stiffened vellum covers in 1895, in good preservation. Measures 16 in. by 11 in. Wm. Snape was parish clerk in 1662.

Vol. II. A paper register, bound in parchment boards, containing Baptisms, 1743 to 1813; Marriages, 1747 to 1749. Measures 15½ in. by 6½ in.

Vol. III. Printed paper forms with Banns and Marriages from 1754 to 1812, in separate divisions. Wm. Hitchcock and James Smith were probably parish clerks of this period.

Vol. IV. Printed paper forms with Marriages 1813 to 1837.

These extracts were made by Mr. Thos. Gurney, of North Kensington, and are now printed under his supervision by leave of Rev. C. E. Grenside, formerly vicar of Pinner, and of Rev. C. E. A. Rowland, the present vicar.
